Art Unit: 1632

Claims 1 and 33 have been amended by the amendment filed 4/28/2004.

Claims 1-3, and 5-67 are pending. The claims as currently amended obviate all outstanding prior art rejection. Thus, the species restriction has been withdrawn by the examiner.

However, the newly amended claims are subjected to a following new ground of rejection.

The brief description of drawings is objected because:

- While the drawings filed on April 2, 2002 depict figures 13A 13B, 18A, 18B, 21A, and 21B, the brief description only refers to Figure 13A, 18A, and 21. A recitation of "B" on line 11 of page 8, for example, is not the same as reciting "Figure 18B".

Correction is required.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-3, and 5-67 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Base claims 1 and 33 as amended recite "the lipid" in item (a). However, it is not apparent as to which lipids the term "the lipid" refers to. While item (a) recites the terms "a cationic lipid" and "a conjugated lipid" on line 1, it is not clear whether or not "the lipid" is meant for either one. A close review of the as-filed specification indicates that a nucleic acid is actually encapsulated within a bilayer lipid vesicle. Thus, a change to "a lipid bilayer of said nucleic acid-lipid particle", for example, is suggested.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
